

OACPS Research and Innovation Programme

PSF service in feasibility study for a Science, Technology, and innovation policy and for the Pacific Open science Workshop at the National Institute of Science and Technology of Timor-Leste

By: Jacinta dos Santos Guterres

National Institute of Science and Technology Timor-Leste

The Specific Objectives OACPS

The Government of Timor Leste, through the Instituto Nacional de Ciências e Tecnologia (INCT), has requested the support of the OACPS Secretariat to enhance its research and innovation (R&I) system and strengthen the cooperation between its key actors.

The Locality of the OACPS Research and Innovation Program in Dili, Timor-Leste.

Methodology: The virtual kick-off meeting

Results of the OACPS Research and Innovation Programmer: to increasing collaboration between its key R&I actors (government, higher education institutes, industry, and civil society).

STAKEHOLDERS

Over 80 stakeholders from around 30 institutions

Government

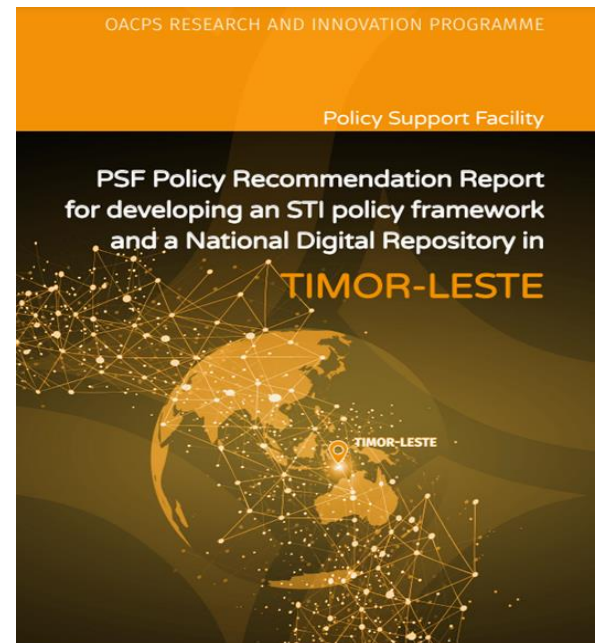

Civil Society

Industry

University

TEAM

4 international experts Around 10 national representatives from 6 institutions

Implemented by the OACPS Secretariat

OACPS R&I

Funded by European Union